

COMPETITION

Where is there more interesting competition than in a game of polo? There the skill, speed, and endurance of man and beast is matched against that of their opponents, and the combined efficiency of pony and player brings success and victory. Driving a Hi-Lo equipped truck, Ford owners can meet the keen business competition of today with an unbeatable combination of power, speed and durability.

Immediate delivery can be made on the new Hi-Lo with frame extension for Model AA Ford trucks. Order from your distributor today.
